Cheerful. Charming. Cherished.

welcome

Hello and welcome! I am thrilled that you have taken the time to look at my work, and that you are considering booking me for your wedding. I can't wait to get to know you and learn more about your big day. For now, though, I want to start out by sharing a little about me and what it means to be a Lydia Teague Photography couple. Take a look at this welcome guide, and then once you look it over, let's chat!

A large white barn with a balcony and a group of men standing in front of the entrance. The barn has a white exterior with dark trim around the windows and doors. A group of five men in grey suits and red ties are standing in front of the large white double doors. Above them, on a balcony, a group of five people are standing. The scene is set on a green lawn with some landscaping in the foreground.

about me

I am Lydia, and I've been wedding photographers for two years. Rather than a long and boring bio, I wanted to share a few 'fun facts' about myself so that you can get to know me a little more.

- I'm from the Dallas-Fort Worth area of Texas and I married my High School Sweetheart.
- After dating for 4 years we said 'I do' on May 19th, 2001.
- We became parents in 2006, 2009, and 2013 and are lucky to be mom and dad to the 3 most mischievous and clever kids.
- Oliver is our 7 Month old Beagle, don't let him fool you, he stays in trouble too.
- I enjoy Sci-Fi, mysteries, and crime dramas, but rarely get to the movies.
- I grew up snowskiing, but prefer the beach now.
- My degree a Bachelor's of Science in Nursing and I practiced as a NICU RN for 8 years prior to having my kids.
- I believe I'm incredibly fortunate to be doing work that I find fulfilling. Seeing beautiful smiling faces looking back at me and knowing their stories, there's nothing I'd rather do.

choosing a photographer

Your wedding day is one of the most important days of your life. We believe that you should choose a photographer that you feel a deep connection with, and whose style of images truly resonates with you.

If you choose to work with us, we promise that not only will you love your images - but you will also have an enjoyable and relaxed experience throughout your entire wedding day.

Over the past 3 years and 25 weddings, we have been fortunate to have worked with so many amazing couples! When trying to find the perfect photographer for your wedding, there is nothing better than client testimonials describing their experience they had while working with us.

We work tirelessly for our clients to provide a client experience that is second to none. The testimonials found throughout this welcome guide are only short excerpts from a small sampling of our client reviews. To read the entire full reviews from some of our couples, please visit our website.

I am incredibly passionate about wedding photography, and my goal is to capture images that you will look back on in 50+ years, and feel like it was just yesterday.

My life experience has taught me to anticipate when the Father of the Bride wipes away a tear or when the Groom dances with his Grandmother. These moments are fleeting. My clients feel the emotion within their photos, whether through laughter or tears, as they recount the variety of special moments captured through the day.

My style can be described as clean, classic, and timeless. I also capture a combination of both posed portraits and candid, photojournalistic style images throughout your day.

Rachel and Matt

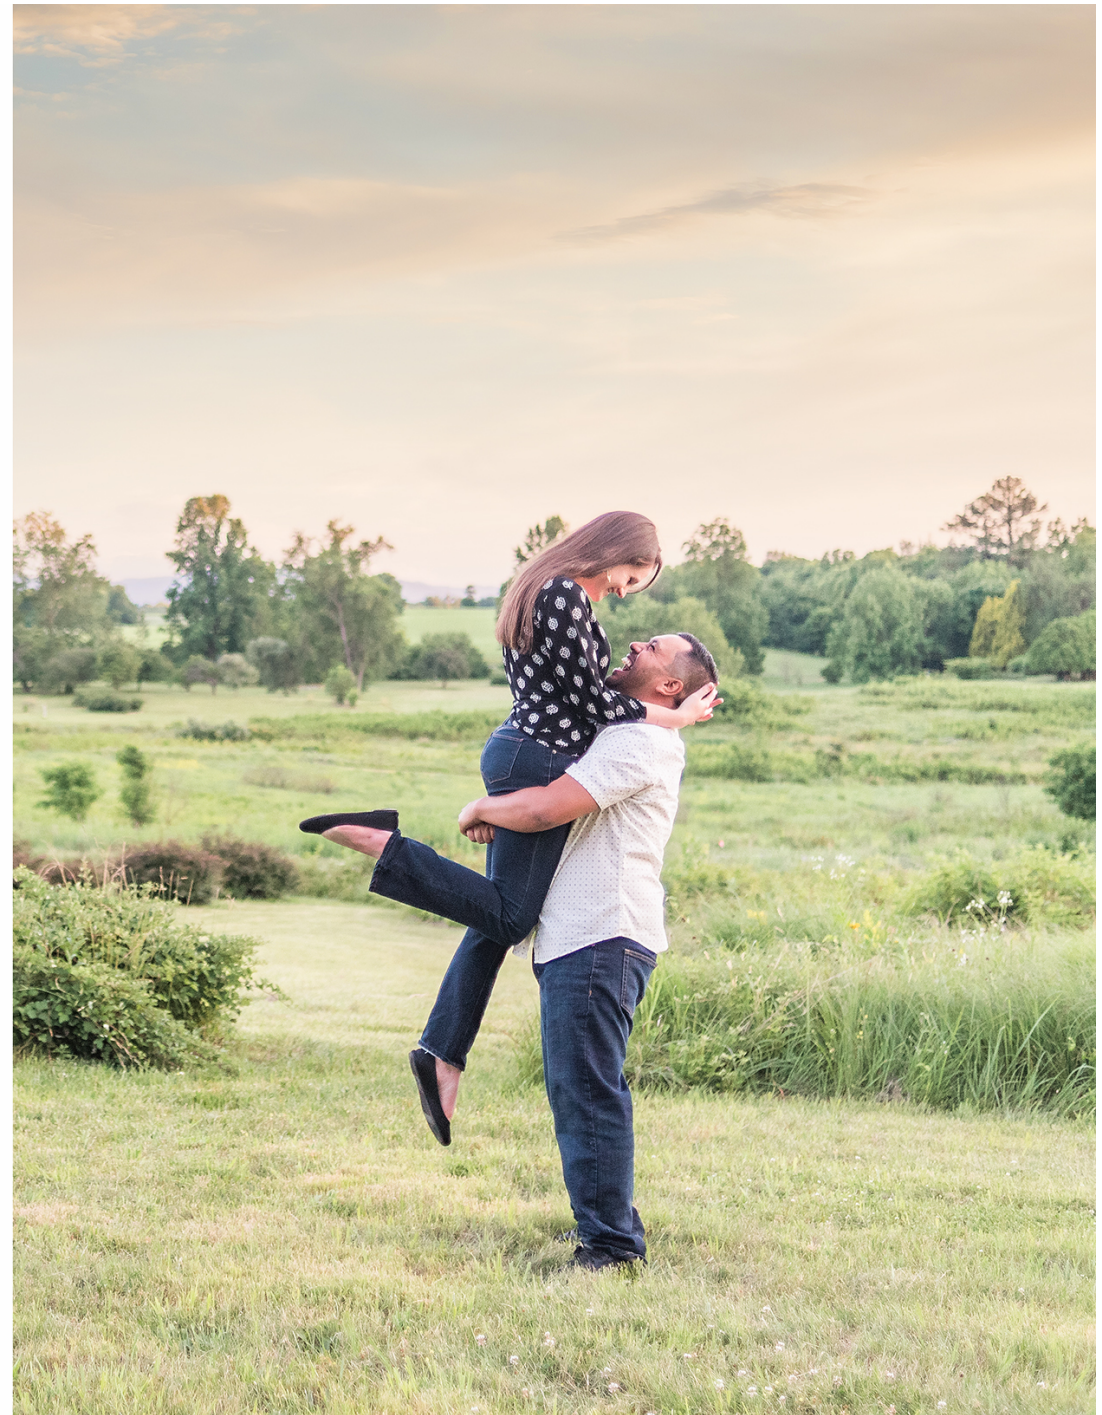

“My husband and I clicked with her the moment we met, and we couldn't be happier with our choice for a wedding photographer. Lydia was able to capture all the special moments of our big day, and I will be treasuring our photos for years to come.”

engagement sessions

You may have noticed that most of my wedding packages include an engagement session. This is because I simply love working with my couples before the big day. Having an engagement session before the wedding will help you get to know me and my relaxed style of posing and shooting. I also love to get to know you two as a couple and interact a little before the excitement of your wedding day. Once you book me as your wedding photographer, I will send you more information about how to prepare for your engagement session with me.

consultation

Think I'm the perfect photographer for you, but have a few more questions that you'd like to ask me about? No problem; I would love to meet with you to discuss your wedding! I often schedule consultations with my couples to chat with them about their big day. This is also a great way to connect and see if we'll be a good fit! Whether it's a phone call, Skype video meeting, or meeting in person – I want to talk with you right away, so let's get in touch!

HOW AM I different

As my couples get to know me over the course of preparing for their wedding, they consider me a friend. Someone they trust to be with them through their wedding day and advise them along the way.

I know when to step in and guide a moment, or stand back and just document the magic as it happens.

What you want is my highest priority, that's why we discuss all the details in depth. Planning each piece of the day allows me to think on my feet and adjust when I need to.

Being in business since 2012 and having photographed all kinds of people, I've seen a variety of situations. This experience gives me the confidence to know that I will capture your day beautifully for you.

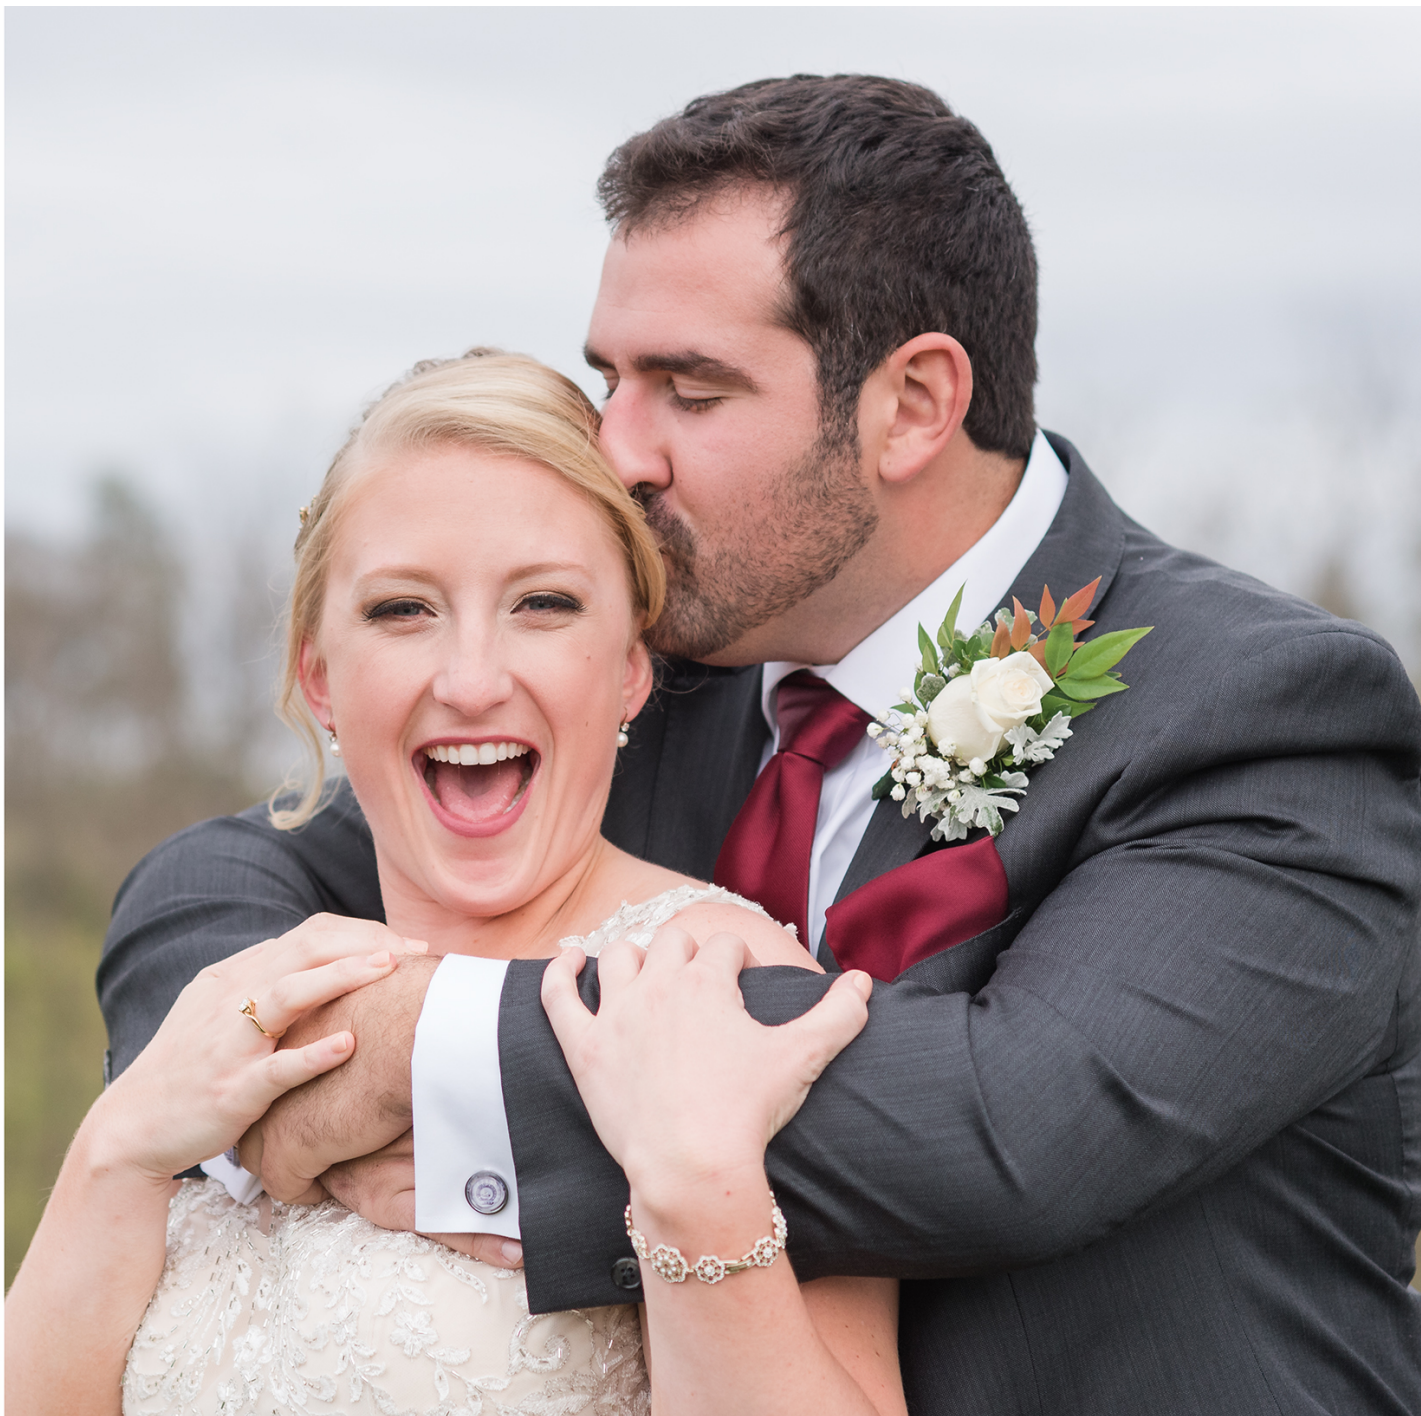

Plus, I'm always available for questions to help you along the way.

Carrie and Tom

Since the first time we met Lydia, we knew she was the one we wanted to photograph our special day. She is local to our area and came prepared to show us what she could offer us through her wedding package. She is honest, trustworthy, hard working, and lively! Her photography skills in both her and her second shooter are beyond perfect. She has an eye of detail, the right lighting, and makes you feel so elegant!

HOW TO book

A signed contract & 25% retainer is required to reserve your wedding date on my calendar. Please keep in mind that I do limit the number of weddings I take on each year and often book up 9-12 months in advance, so please get in touch as soon as possible to ensure that I have your date available.

albums

When you receive all of your wedding photos from me, they will no doubt look amazing online. However, your images are not meant to stay on your computer! Looking through hundreds of images on the computer can get a little overwhelming, and I believe that you should have something tangible to remind you of your important day. I think wedding albums are the perfect piece of art that will become an heirloom that your family will treasure for years to come. That's why my packages come with an album credit; my hope is that all of my couples will have their own custom album showcasing the best images from their wedding day.
